OFFICIAL SAYS CABLEVISION TO BE IN OPERATION BY 'THIS TIME NEXT YEAR'

Dave Lee, of Bridgton, a partner in Bethel Cablevision Co., Inc., told the Citizen this week that a land acquisition deal he had been working on has fallen through. The land is needed as a place to erect the dish antenna to bring in the signal from the communications satellite for distribution over the cable TV lines.

Mr. Lee said the unexpected turn of events in the first phase of building the cable TV system would set back the building plan somewhat. But he said the project was still "ahead of schedule" and he planned to have the system in operation by next fall. "We'll be in operation by this time next year," he said. By the terms of the contract signed with the town, the system must be completed by January 1986.

Bethel Cablevision is a cooperative venture between Lee Cable Co. of Bridgton and White Mountain Cable Construction Co. of Pittsfield, N.H. Bethel Cablevision received permission from the Board of Selectmen in July to construct a cable TV system for the town. The company is supposed to provide service to Bethel Village, West Bethel Village, a portion of Paradise Road, and portions of Paradise Road, Route 2 to Mayville, Route 26 past Telstar, and Intervale Road.

The selectmen had been looking for a cable TV supplier since the mid-70s and began negotiations with Mr. Lee in March 1982.

Mr. Lee said he is now looking at two other sites where he might place his dish antennas. He intends to have two dishes. "If we can get the land we want, we can put in the foundation for the satellite dishes (before the winter)," he said.

FROM THE bethel town office

The Board of Selectmen met in regular session, Monday evening, Oct. 1, in the Town Office meeting room and acted on a variety of agenda items.

A proposal voiced by attorney Michael O'Donnell in behalf of his clients John and Edleen Winslow led to a compromise solution to the Elm Street corner curbing project. Acting on data and recommendations from D.O.T. safety engineers and Hunter-Ballew design engineers, the selectmen voted on Aug. 6 to install continuous curbing around the south corner of the Elm/Main Street intersection in a mirror image of the curbing installed last year on the north corner near the Bethel House. In addition to upgrading the sidewalks, the objective in laying out the new curbing is to enhance driver and pedestrian safety by having motorists address Maine Street at a right angle from Elm Street. The compromise design acted on by the board terminates the curbing at the pedestrian ramp, leaving a driveway opening on Elm Street for drainage and customer access to Charlie's Place.

At the antenna site, the company will also construct a small building to house transmission gear. Then they will begin stringing cable from the building to the populous areas of town, utilizing existing phone and power poles. The company has already applied for permits to use the poles for hanging cable.

FINAL STAGES OF WORK SCHEDULED FOR LOCKE MILLS GROCERY

The Locke Mills Food Center, on Route 26, continues to make progress towards completion. The grocery, which burned down on Jan. 27 of this year, is now weather-tight and heated, owner Peter Callionas told the Citizen this week.

"Hopefully the contractors will get in there in the next two or three weeks," he said.

He had hoped to move faster on the rebuilding of the 5,000-square foot store, but the payments from the insurance settlement have been coming intermittently, he said, slowing the reconstruction. When the next payment is received, he will install the needed refrigeration equipment. This should be accomplished within two months, he said.

Talking about what the store will have to offer homemakers, Mr. Callionas promised, "service and high quality—a community store with competitive prices."

CITIZEN TO PUBLISH SPECIAL SECTION ON WINTER RECREATION

The Bethel Citizen will publish a special section on winter recreation in the Bethel area. The special section will contain full-color photographs and will be in tabloid format. It will be distributed in the Bethel metropolitan area through ski and sports stores to acquaint Boston-area sports enthusiasts with winter recreational activities in the Bethel area.

A press run of 20,000 of the 20-page special section is anticipated. The section will contain articles and photographs about the Bethel area and about the various winter sports facilities here.

Regular advertisers in the Citizen have already been notified about the special section, which is due off the press next month. If you would like further information

Sent in by Viva Whitman:

What a lovely day it turned out to be to go to Fryeburg Fair. The weather man predicted rain last night and we wondered if we would get to go, but it has been a beautiful day and the scenery on the ride just as bright and pretty as it should be at this time of year. There were a great many people who enjoyed the good weather as well as we did and went to the Fair. We like to go and watch the horse show, the dogs driving the sheep and especially enjoy the pig scramble. The last two to get their pigs in bags had to have help as they were as tucked out as the small pigs, it is hard to believe just how hard the kids have to work to catch those little pigs, but they sure were determined, and all were caught. We had many laughs at the kids expense and the pigs too. It was the best part of the day for me, though I like to watch the sheep trials when there are good dogs working them and the horse show is always good. The walk through the midway and around is so long now that it tucks me out to try to make it and some time I can't make the rounds. I had to find a place to sit down and rest today. We didn't see anywhere near all the things on the fair grounds, but are very tired to night and glad we had such nice weather for the day, with Wynona, Michael and Courtney.

It has been a very busy week all around as Bryce came in on Monday with the back camp of Peggy's and got that set up. Tuesday, he came with the front part of the camp and that was set on the cement pad. Russell and I helped all we could, but Lawrence and Bryce did most of the hard work. Russell and I had to leave on Tuesday to go to North Bridgton to the doctor and of course had to wait, so they had gotten a lot done while we were gone. Anyway, the camps are on the cement and look as though they belonged there. I'm sure when Peggy sees all that has taken place, she will be happy about it. The boys worked hard to do things right and it was great to watch the way they got the camps to come together the way they were when in Bethel. I took pictures for Peggy and hope they come out good.

Of course there were other things to do too, like freezing beet greens that Russell planted after the peas were done bearing. There were the tomatoes to can and we gathered the squashes. Also, Russell and I have been working at the structure at the front of the mobile home and it is coming along pretty good.

Russell and I made a quick trip to Bethel on Wednesday to pick up a saw blade he had left to be sharpened. They said the sun would shine in the afternoon and we wanted to make the most of the weather, so went to Bethel in the main in the afternoon.

Thursday was another day for Bryce to work on Peggy's camp and he got things done that needed doing. He had some carpenter work to do for her.

Myrna, Peggy's daughter, and her husband, Bernard, came on Thursday to see how the camp looked and were back again on Friday to a little work on it. Russell and I went to Norway to do laundry and get more lumber we needed for our project, also got groceries and by the time we got home it was time to get lunch, so invited Myrna and Bernard to have lunch with us. We worked all we could on the structure out front of the home and as usual Russell did the most of it as it is his plan. Sometimes we have to stop and see just how to get something done the best way, so it takes longer than we like, but we will get it done eventually, and hope it will be a good improvement on the place. At least, it will close in the front door and make it better in the winter months, keeping the cold out when we come into the trailer.

Alvin and Pat are working hard on their new home and should be ready to move into it before long. The house looks nice from the outside and I haven't been into it for some time, so expect there are a lot of changes. Pat says the more they do, the more it looks like they had to do. Isn't that the way it usually is with such a project?

Have done a little sewing this week, some crocheting and what else I could between helping in other ways. Haven't had time to get into mischief at all and don't expect to this coming week either. There is a lot to be done before the cold weather comes, and we plan to do all we can, as fast as we can, so will be busy as beavers building a dam.

Hope all of you folks out there are enjoying the beautiful fall colors and will last long as you can. They won't stay with us half long enough and we all know that. As I ride through the countryside, I look at the spectacular scenes that are around me and hope I remember some of them when the winter months come and I see that beautiful white stuff instead of so many nice colors.

There is one place I enjoy going by very much and that is over in East Stoneham, where the small water-fall is. I don't know of a prettier place in the fall when the colors reflect from the water in the lake. I love to look up the lake from the falls and view the scene that is there for anyone to see. Today the water was calm and the colors are not as vivid as they probably will be, but it was a picture to put away in my mind for a dull dreary day that makes me feel blue. All I have to do is re-

NEWS FROM ADULT AND COMMUNITY EDUCATION

The S.A.D. 44 Adult and Community Education program began classes in the General Enrichment area during the week of Sept. 24.

Adult Coed Volleyball topped the list with 67 enrollees, followed by the Child Abuse Recertification class with over 40, and the Community Chorus with 40. Adult and Community Education Director Cathy Newell expressed satisfaction with the excellent response to the fall schedule, both in terms of enrollment and student enthusiasm. She mentioned that it is not too late to join many of the classes currently in progress, and that there will be a number of other classes starting throughout the fall. Course description brochures continue to be available at the office at Telstar High School, or at the Bethel Library.

Classes which will begin soon include the Bureau of Safety's Defensive Driving class, which will be worth five points, and will be taught on Tuesdays by Ron Kugell starting Oct. 9. On Oct. 11, there will be a class on Human Sexuality, designed for parents who wish to be better prepared to talk to their children about sex. This class will be followed on consecutive Thursdays, with specialized classes for parents of young children, parents of pre-teens, and parents of teenagers. Robin Brackett of Tri-County Family Services will instruct this course.

GED clinics are held at Telstar each Tuesday evening for adults who are interested in preparing for the high school equivalency exam. It is necessary to call the office in advance of the 6:15 class. The GED clinic is part of the Adult Learning Center which also offers individual help in reading, writing and math skills.

The Telstar Library is open on Tuesday nights for use by the community. Librarian Dottie Boyce is in charge and would be happy to assist anyone with library use, research, or quiet browsing. The hours are 7-9.

For information on any classes or programs, call the Adult & Community Education office, 824-2780.

member the beauty of that scene and things will be brighter. Hope it is the same for all of you. Some pretty picture can help one feel lots better on a miserable cold winter day, so try it and see if I'm not right.

— Miss Amy Hanscom, Corres. —

James Sysko has been selected to put the new roof on the Raymond Foster School. He expects to start about mid October, and would welcome volunteer labor to pass lumber, etc. This would speed up the job and save on expense. It is expected that the job will take two to three weeks. Several building supply dealers have been asked to submit prices for materials. A 6/12 pitch has been decided on for the roof. It was feared that the snow would not slide off the 3/12 originally suggested. The building is approximately 48 by 56 feet and the roof will be built with the ridge running the short way of the building, back away from the road. The present chimney will have to be extended, and since it is badly cracked in places, it is felt that it should be torn down and completely rebuilt. It is hoped that it can be rebuilt to its present height within the next two weeks.

The Mothers Club held a very successful food sale at the Bethel I.G.A. Store, Sept. 28, with Louise Tetley and Gilberte Seeley in charge. Much appreciation is offered to the I.G.A. store and to all club members and others who gave so generously to make it a success. Thank you and God bless you all.

The Mothers Club will meet at the Club House Oct. 8, at 7:30 p.m. A white elephant sale will be held at this meeting.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Readers,

If anyone would like to give something for an Xmas gift for the children and adults at Pine Island, it would be greatly appreciated by the ones receiving the gift and the American Legion Auxiliary who is sponsoring the program. We have had excellent response in the past. The deadline is Oct. 16th and gifts may be left with Jeri at Brooks Bros.

Thank you for giving.

Dear Editor:

I wanted to take this opportunity to thank Eldon and Ann for their service to Bethel and her people.

I cannot think of a family in this town who has not had to deal with Eldon at some time in their family life. Usually it was at a time when making decisions might have been impossible. Eldon always gave you the right answers with the compassion and understanding that comes from caring.

Ann was always in the background. But those who knew them and their commitment to this town, knew she was there when she was needed.

Thanks Eldon for all your hard work, your understanding, and most of all the care you showed each one of us you dealt with.

I want to add a personal thanks for a long hard trip to Framingham you made easier for all of us. (Especially the lunch.)

The Best Always,
Fran Thurston-Doucette

MEET ABIGAIL AND EMILY

Pre-School children in Oxford County Head State centers will be meeting with Bette Woodbury's "friends" this fall. Ms. Woodbury is the Educational Coordinator for Head State programs in Rumford, East Sumner, Bethel, and Norway. She headed a team of volunteers that made seven dolls this past summer. . . . "friends" that have become a part of the new teaching program at Head Start. Abigail wears braces and Emily has cerebral palsy, says Ms. Woodbury, but they have personalities, too, that makes them "friends" of each of the 76 pre-school children who are beginning to meet people in the larger world. Head Start in Oxford County is sponsored by Oxford County Community Services, South Paris.

FOUNTAIN FUND COMMITTEE MAKES FINANCIAL REPORT

The Custodial Committee of the Bethel Common Fountain Fund wishes to make a financial report to the people of the Town of Bethel.

The fountain has been completed and a public dedication was held to present the new fountain to the town manager, as a representative of the citizens of the town. Norma Jodrey, chairman of the committee, officiated at a warm and informal presentation, ably assisted by Dale Thurston. Around 100 people gathered on the Common on Sunday, Sept. 23, to witness this event. Introduced were the treasurer of the fountain committee, Mary Keniston, and the contractors, Al Saunders of Al Saunders & Sons Masonry of Bethel; Maynard Cushman, electrician, of Bryant Pond, and Paul McKen of Paul's Pools from Dixfield. Chairman Jodrey, made special note of the many who gave of their time and manual labor in completing the job. They are Arlan Jodrey, Mike Jodrey, Howard Donahue, Ed Friel, Dennis Wilson, Blake MacKay, Allan Waterhouse, Dale Thurston and Bob Davis.

Contributions received to date for funding a new fountain total $3,710. Donations made in memory of John E. Grover were $1,625 and interest earned on the account is $133.66, or a total of $5,468.66. The total cost of the construction for the three contractors was $5,142 and their bills have been paid in full. The balance left is $326.66.

It should be noted that while the "electrical work was being done, another project was made the responsibility of the fountain committee. At the request of some local organizations in town, Maynard Cushman, the electrician, installed a new electric service box on the Broad Street side of the Common for better electrical coverage on Mollycoddle Day and for the Christmas Nativity program. This new installation was made possible by donations from L. E. Davis Lumber Co., Inc., Sunday River Tree Service, the Bethel Lions Club, and the Bethel American Legion. Unfortunately, donations

CARD OF THANKS

Again I can't begin to count my many blessings for all that has been done for me the past few weeks while hospitalized at the Maine Medical Center and my return to the Cape—for the cheerful expressions of hope and health from so many friends and relatives that mean so much when one is ill, the beautiful flowers and plants and other kindnesses. Special thanks to my loving family, my dear niece Judy, the Reverend Brandon and Jean Bass for their visits, and to Dr. Beryl Moore. My sincerest thanks and deepest gratitude to all.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP FIRST MEETING WAS SEPT. 26

The Women's Fellowship of the West Parish Congregational Church had their first meeting of the fall on Wednesday, Sept. 26. Jane Chandler showed her slides and told about her five days in Milwaukee as one of the Maine representatives to the National Women's Event sponsored by the United Church of Christ.

Rev. Jean Bass will be leading a Bible study on the women of the Old Testament. The study will begin Wednesday, Oct. 10 at 9:30 and continue each Wednesday for six weeks. All are welcome.

Preparations are beginning for the annual Christmas Fair and Tea to be held Dec. 2. Those interested in working on crafts will be gathering after the Bible study. Bring a sandwich and join them. There will be a SERV table again this year, but pre-orders from the catalog will be taken until Sunday, Oct. 14. The catalog is at the church; see Jean or Peggy if you have any questions.

The Fellowship meets the fourth Wednesday of each month. The next meeting will be Oct. 24 at 9:30. Gert Hutchins and Barbara Brown will be the hostesses.

did not meet the total cost of Mr. Cushman's bill of $530. Donations totaled $400. This project was handled entirely separately from the fountain fund, but to reimburse the electrician, $130 had to be used from the fountain fund to pay the bill.

The balance in the fountain fund is now $196.66. This will remain in a savings account, perhaps to receive more promised donations, and also at the request of Bill Judson, town manager. He asks that funds remaining be presented to the town at the annual town meeting in 1985 for the future maintenance of the fountain.

Donations received since the last report are from Al Saunders and family, Paul McKen, Northern Oxford Health and Service Council, Inc., Richard and Frances Bernier, Barbara Miller, Lt. Gen. James D. and Mrs. Consuelo Alger, Rev. Norman and Betty Rust, and Lloyd and Alana Grover.

Homemade goods were on display, and for sale, at last weekend's crafts festival at Sunday River. About 30 craftspeople and artisans took part—from wool spinners and knitters to potters and dollmakers. Above, Dorothy Brown, of the Gingerbread House Bakery in Bryant Pond, displays some of her homemade chocolates and lollypops.

teams were playing North Yarmouth Academy away. This Saturday, the women's varsity will entertain the White Mountain School at home, in a game that starts at 10 a.m. The JVV's play Tilton at home; game time is 2:30 p.m.

In other Saturday games, the field hockey varsity and JV's will be at Berlin, with the first game at 1:30 p.m. The cross-country team will be at Kents Hill for a 2 p.m. meet.

Next Monday, Gould Academy takes on Telstar RHS, at Telstar, with the varsity soccer match at 3 p.m. and the JV game following, at 4:30 p.m. The Rebel booters won an earlier match at Gould two weeks ago.

BRIDGE ENTHUSIASTS GET TOGETHER

Fall is here and winter is coming. The good thing about all that is, that it is time to get Bridge players in high gear for a good season. Oct. 7 is a free-for-all round-up. It's open to everyone who enjoys the game. Joan and Norman Putnam are hosting a pot luck dinner-bridge starting at 4 p.m. Joan says, "We'll play, eat and play." This is a progressive rubber bridge. Sign up with Joan, Carolyn Brooks or Cynthia Mason. It should be fun to get together after several months of swimming and sunning.

GREENWOOD VOTERS HOLD SPECIAL TOWN MEETING

At the Special Town Meeting on Tuesday night, Greenwood voters appropriated $11,000 for road repairs and $5,000 to continue operating the town dump for the next six months. The appropriations were from surplus funds. Only 13 voters showed up for the meeting, which lasted a half-hour.

The road repair funds will finish paving and sealing seven roads badly damaged by the flood of last April 5. The town has already spent $15,000 on repairing the damage, and Road Commissioner Raymond W. Seames said the additional $11,000 was needed to get the roads properly prepared for winter.

Town Meeting voters elected Norm Millett selectman to fill the unexpired term of Ronnie Smith, who resigned in July. Mr. Smith was on his last year of office.

to conduct an environmental assessment of the Bethel Airport, acted on a job description for the part time secretary-office clerk position at the town office, discussed traffic concerns on Cross Street, authorized the manager to arrange for the sale of winter sand for the 1984-85 season, and signed the treasurer's warrant.

The selectmen discussed plans to finalize at their Oct. 15 meeting a self-evaluation of municipal programs, services and policies to ensure access for handicapped individuals. All municipal governments receiving $25,000 or more annually from federal revenue sharing must make an initial notification to the public that they have a policy against discrimination to the handicapped. In addition to the self-evaluation project mentioned above, a grievance procedure must be adopted to ensure prompt and equitable review of handicapped discrimination complaints. The board will act on these matters at their regular meeting Oct. 15 in time to meet the federally mandated Oct. 17 deadline.

THREE HONORED BY GOULD ALUMNI

Three people were honored by the Gould Academy Alumni Association for their contributions to Gould, their communities and the world in general during recently concluded alumni weekend festivities.

William M. Throop, Jr. from New Canaan, Conn., received the Nathaniel Tuckerman True award which notes the outstanding achievements made to Maine and to the world community by promoting the ideals and goals of Gould Academy's first headmaster.

Mr. Throop is a member of the New York law firm of Davidson, Dawson & Clark and has been a trustee of Gould since 1961, serving as president from 1969 to 1979. He is currently a member of the executive committee and has always taken a keen interest in the welfare of Gould. He serves as one of three trustees of the Bettermant Fund, which was set up under the terms of the will of William Bingham II, late of Bethel.

As such he has seen the fund assist financially such organizations as Gould, Bates, Bowdoin, Colby, WCCB in Lewiston, Hurricane Island Outward Bound School, The Portland School of Art, Pratt Diagnostic Hospital in Boston, as well as the awarding of many scholarships in the fields of medicine and education.

Frank A. Vogt received the Alumni Association's Faculty Award for his many years of devoted service to the Academy and to the dozen's of students who did and still do benefit from his teaching, training and values of his contributions to education.

Mr. Vogt first joined the Gould faculty in 1959 and was a member of the English department until his retirement in 1982. He coached cross country and was known for his strong teams and state champions. Three of Mr. Vogt's children, all Gould graduates, were on hand to see him receive this award.

The Alumnus-of-the-Year Award was presented to Michael S. Stowell '58. He is a member of the Alumni Association's Board of Directors and has served as a class agent and class reunion co-chairman for many years. His award notes the outstanding achievements and contributions he has made to Gould Academy and to the community. Mr. Stowell lives in Leesburg, Va., where he works as a long-time supervisor for A. T. & T. He attended Gould as a day student during the time that Gould served as Bethel's high school in addition to being a boarding school.

These awards were made by Awards Chairman Craig Boyd '69, Brewer; Alumni Association President Marcia Savage McGee '61, Northeast Harbor; and Headmaster William P. Clough III.

— Eveline B. Vatcher, Corres. —

A new month is starting today and I hope the beautiful foliage will last the entire month. The leaves are just as pretty here at home as they are in the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bean spent the week end at Dick Bean's camp at Moosehead Lake, fishing and putting around the camp which is two miles across the lake. It doesn't sound good to Eveline.

Once again the West Paris Fire Dept. was in our little hamlet for the fire at the former Trask farm. South Paris Fire Dept. came to help and water was hauled from Moose Pond. There was plenty of traffic for several hours.

Mrs. Rhoda Vatcher went to Auburn on business.

Several from our end of town attended the 40th anniversary party for Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Proctor on Sunday, Sept. 30, at the West Paris Legion Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vatcher visited their sisters, Alice Goff and Doris Lawrence at Mexico. On Saturday the Vatchers went to Bear State Park in Allenstown, N. H., to the Anderson family reunion. All had fun playing football, eating and reminiscing. The foliage was beautiful and in some places, many of the trees were bare. On the way home they met several loads of

Pack 566 News

Cub Scout Pack 566 held their first pack meeting Sept. 25, 1984 at the Methodist church. The pack meeting followed a "School Night for Scouting" which was held Friday, Sept. 21, at the Crescent Park School. At that time 21 new cubs signed up. The pack meeting was the first experience for many of the cubs and their families to scouting. Due to the many new scouts a plea for leaders was also extended.

Thanks to the dedication of all of the parents enough new leaders were recruited to cover two Webelos Dens and four regular cub dens.

The pack welcomed back as Webelos leader Den #1 Dale and Linda Smith. Dr. John Mason was introduced as the Webelos Den #2 leader. Jeff Lyon, the Den Chief for that den accepted the boys assigned to it in Dr. Mason's absence. It was also announced that former Den #2 chief Shannon Sumner will be moving into Webelos Den #1 as the Den chief assigned to that Den. A grateful thank you was extended to Rose Sumner for her guidance and assistance as a Den Leader this past year. She will be assuming the duties of Den Leader Coach. Assuming the Den #2 Leadership will be Dwayne and Sarah Craig. Debra Mills is retiring as a Den Leader. She was also given a grateful thank you from the pack. Sara Craig pinned the Den chief's cord to new Chief of Den #2 Mike Boudreau. The other new leaders will be announced at the October pack meeting.

Inducted into Webelos Dens were: Howard Rice, Patrick Harrington, Mathew Arsenault, Nathaniel Craig, Chris Cordwell, Jason Mathias, Jeremiah Mills, Ryan Wheeler, Jody Brooks.

At the Pack meeting Committee Chairman and Scoutmaster Ray Harrington presented the Cub Scout Summer Time Pack Award.

The popcorn order sheets and demonstration buckets were handed out to the cubs. As this is the only big fund raising event for the cub scouts of pack 566, everyone is asked to please welcome the cub when he calls on you and support your local scouts. He is doing "His Best."

Fifteen boys from the pack attended the Cub Scout Rally in Mexico, Sept. 29, 1984. At this rally cubs from the entire Snowshoe district participated in several events. A softball throw, obstacle course, three-legged race and a tug of war. Pack 566 came away with several ribbons and some very happy faces. A good time was had by all the scouts and their leaders.

For the pack to qualify for this they had to have three scheduled activities during the summer months. The cubs that were present and participated in all three activities received recognition pins, and the den with the most cubs participating received a ribbon. This was Den #2. The Pack received a banner ribbon that was attached to the pack flag. Scout co-ordinator Rev. Guy Downing was presented a framed certificate to display.

The next pack meeting will be at 7 p.m., Oct. 30, at the Telstar cafeteria.

— Mrs. Collista Morgan, Corres. —

There is universal excitement when the autumn foliage arrives. It is written up in headlines of newspapers, people talk about it, visitors come to see it. Spotters send in reports such as, "Just beginning" — "At height now" — "Still colorful" — "Gone by". Some places have color tours and others fall festivals. Everywhere it surely is a beautiful display. It's a long story telling the why of this color, I just enjoy it. I look out over the pond, the first thing in the morning, where the mirror of the water reflects the sky and the clouds and the autumn colors and I wonder how the stirring colors will stimulate our minds looking at this riot of color, so exciting and exhilarating. Even the fallen leaves reflect the ray of color upward and add luminous radiance, which we find at no other time of year.

I am reminded of the "her" months each fall, those last four of the year; three of which are very appropriate for the time. Fires are dying down, leaving the "embers".

Wouldn't it be more interesting to collect leaves than to collect stamps, if they could keep the original beauty? I do gather some, since the end of the stem then press them. When they dry they will not shatter. I use them with a bit of fern preserved in the same way, to brighten up a card or letter in the winter time.

As I walked I especially noticed the bumble bees anchored in the jewel weeds, even in the blossoms fallen on to the ground.

A flock of flickers startled me as the birds flew up flashing their white rump patches, calling stridently. They flew from the grass where they had been hunting, going toward the forest.

I read two brief sentences this week explaining the word "Forest." One, "Our Forest is the breath of the earth's crust." Two, "The Forest is a corporation of the many kinds of plants, the largest of which are trees." I had never thought of it that way.

It was surely an Indian summer day walking, so warm I removed my sweater. The nearness to winter always accentuates its charm. There have been many such days with night's cool.

My walk was invigorating in the sun and fresh air.

A lonely train whistle was brought to me over the miles of forest land on my way home.

Night would again bring cold, working in the darkness, adding new color across the already painted forests.

Though I enjoyed the pleasures of a similar roadside world many times throughout the years this special afternoon will remain vivid, peaceful, and warm.

I strolled 'neath the land of mountains where the trees were clearly seen.

I stood at the edge of the water where the air was refreshing and clean. C. C. M.

We didn't have moose this week but we had two Coydogs at the farm pasture in front of the house.

They were first noticed by the Holts because their dog "Pete" had gone to visit them. He came back but the two stayed and seemed to be interested in something on the ground. Mr. Holt went to see and found they were eating a new born calf which they had killed.

They returned the next morning even though the calf had been removed. We don't like to have them so friendly.

Ann Holt was at her parents' home on Sunday. She took her mother, Zilpha DiArenzo and me for a foliage ride through Evans Nollch.

Duane Hayes and his sons, Scott and Austin, West Paris; Ardell Hayes, Auburn, were at the Hayes Homestead on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Betts were in Massachusetts last week for a few days last week visiting her mother.

Nestor Tamminen is home from C.I.M.M.C. in Lewiston and is doing well.

Fred and Rena Curtis were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Curtis and family in Buckfield recently. On Sunday, they were in Freeport to visit their daughters and families. Callers were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wyman of Gurnet, Eva Felton and Kathy Curtis, local.

Ernest Morris is at Ledgeview at the present time.

is picking up and there is a gentle rain. No one likes to see it rain on fair week but wells are low, lawns and woods are dry.

Every year a moose travels across the field from the swamp area in Albany to another one along the Rabbit Road. Rita Wilson saw a young one go through late Saturday afternoon, but I missed seeing it again.

How many of you have those LED clocks that go back to square one when there is the slightest interruption in the power. It has really been frustrating lately the way the lights have been flickering. The lights went out three times last evening alone. Don't dare trust the clock to get us up in the morning.

Leaves and pine needles are falling. When it is raining or has rained and the ground is wet please be careful when walking or driving as the leaves etc. make for slippery conditions.

West Bethel

Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Lovejoy and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cummings were in Rumford Wednesday night to attend the birthday party of Ray West. His wife, Dorothy, made the special cake for the group of 16.

Alanson Cummings saw his eye doctor in South Paris Thursday a.m., and after lunch went to the hospital to see Granville Weeks, Stanley Andrews and Linwood Buck.

There was a family fathering at Cleve Lovejoy's Sunday for dinner. A total of 12 enjoyed the feed of corn from the Wests' garden in Rumford.

Monday was Lumberman's Day at the Fryeburg Fair, so Alanson Lovejoy and his dad, Cleve Lovejoy, attended along with their wives.

NOTES FROM THE WOODSTOCK HISTORICAL SOC.

Often celebrated historians do indeed have fine insights. One example comes in Bruce Catton's "The Bold and Magnificent Dream: America's Founding Years."

He gives cogent reasons why the American Experiment was so timely after Europe's decadence: "For all its excitement, its sense of hope and a new day dawning, its deathless achievements in arts and letters and on the high seas, the Renaissance did little to alter the ageless imbalance, as old as human civilization itself, between the privileged few and everyone else. This was an age that glorified the exceptional man, the superior talent, the creative genius—and produced more than its share of such. It helped carve avenues to the top . . . But the Renaissance looked upward and outward, rarely downward and viewed ordinary mortals with lofty unconcern." America has indeed glorified the common man by contrast. We should all be grateful that here everyone has an opportunity to excel. This is not a leveling process, but rather letting everyone have a chance to achieve without regard to wealth or birth.

Saturday, Oct. 13, at 7 p. m. at the Elementary School, the Woodstock Historical Society will hold its first meeting of the new year. The speaker will be Past President Annie Crockett, who will present a program on the Bryant Pond Garden Club. This will mark the beginning of the Society's sixth year.

South Woodstock - Bryant Pond

— Olive Davis, Corres. —

We have several friends who are in the hospital or just getting out. I hope all are sending them cards to make their stay happier.

Nestor Tamminen has had a hip operation. They hoped he'd be home this week end. Address, West Paris, Chester Hayes from Gorham, N. H., is in the Berlin hospital. Stanley Andrews is in Norway hospital. He has been through the operation. Send them cards, folks, they need friends now.

Saturday I went to Bridgton where we celebrated three birthdays in the family: Sylvia Andrews, Sept. 22; Lillian Harmon, her mother, Sept. 29, and Arthlene Winkle, her daughter, Oct. 5.

Arthlene Paul Winkle and two children were home over the week end from Northboro, Mass. They returned home Sunday.

Jim Micloni has a furnace installed in his home for the winter.

Esther Davis and Olive Davis were in Bethel on business Monday. They went home through Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Hathaway went to Common Ground Fair in Windsor Friday. It was Senior Citizens day and kids day. Many children were carried there by bus.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway were in Gorham, N. H. They went to Berlin and had supper, after which they took in the play "Death Trap" by local talent.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tyler, Oxford, had supper with Mrs. Tyler's daughter, Joyce and husband, Ellsworth Hathaway.

Jim Mason Jr. arranged a pot luck picnic in the Leon Verrill field by the Andrews Brook. Games were played and a general good time was had by around 40 people Sunday.

Lenwood Andrews is announcing another dance to be held at West Sumner to follow a supper by Pleasant Pond Grange Oct. 13. They had a dance last spring and there was a large crowd.

The leaves are changing color rapidly around here. You can almost see them change. Many places are beautiful now.

Esther and Olive Davis were in Berlin shopping Tuesday.

We had a heavy frost the last of the week, so the garden has been cleaned up and flower beds mowed. After a heavy frost we always have a warm spell. This week is proving it according to the forecast.

Boys' State coordinator Vito DePhillip will be present and Mrs. Ruth Juchus, assistant director of Girls' State.

Representatives from the various organizations who sponsored these boys and girls have been invited to attend and learn that the support they give is very worthwhile.

DON BROWN RETIRES FROM CITIZEN STAFF

Donald S. Brown of Chapman Street, retired last Friday after 33 years with the Bethel Citizen. Mr. Brown is 65 and is one of the former owners of the paper. His father, the late Carl L. Brown, ran the paper from 1927 on, bringing three of his sons into the business.

Mr. Brown joined the paper in 1951, pursuing the trade of printer and photographer. He had previously conducted his own photography business, since 1946. He is a graduate of the portrait and commercial course at the New York Institute of Photography in New York City.

He is a 1938 graduate of Gould Academy and saw action in the Pacific in World War II with the 43rd Infantry Division. Upon his return to the States in December 1944, he married Arlene Greenleaf. The couple have two children, Kurt and Danna.

Mr. Brown is credited with introducing offset printing to job work done at the Citizen, and he looks back upon those days nearly 20 years ago with wonder. "When we got our first offset press, I had never even seen one running," he recalled. "The first one I saw was the one we bought."

Since offset printing was not as popular as it is now, no teachers were readily available, so Mr. Brown had to instruct himself. "Learning offset printing from a manual was the most interesting thing (I did at the Citizen)," he said.

Mr. Brown has no immediate plans for his retirement, and, in fact, seems hardly retired. He has been at the Citizen every day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carter have returned from a vacation trip in Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stevens have returned from a vacation trip to California and other western states.

Have you seen the nice write-up in this month's "Esquire" on Bethel and its neighboring ski areas? The article features "31 Winter Escapes" and places Bethel between such exotic resorts as Aspen and Bavaria.
